IN BRIEF.

"Snowed under" but not convinced. Harris & Andrews vs. T. & P. obtained a new trial yesterday.

It is said that three thousand is to be the number at the cattlemen's banquet. Wm. E. Kirk and Miss Sarah Livingston have had a license to marry issued to them.

The tax-collectors were kept extremely busy yesterday taking in the debts.

R. L. Turner has received an elegant sixteen seat bus, which is a beauty.

Gaston Miller, the southeastern passenger agent of the Wabash line, is in the city.

Gen. Fitzhugh Lee is to lecture in Dallas on March 8 on the "Battle of Chancellorsville."

A few more hours work will complete the pipe-laying for the water works.

James Creswell will probably perfect his appeal to the court of appeals at its next term, in April.

Chas. Phelan Esq., the good looking book-keeper for Jos. H. Brown, is still in the city. Feb 27-28-pd.

Mrs. Burns, Mrs. Leslie, and Mrs. Selden had their hen coops robbed Sunday night. All the yellow legs are gone.

The damages to the Missouri Pacific track at Elm Fork by the high water on Friday, have been repaired, and trains are again running regularly.

The pay car of the T. & P. will not be here to-day, and the boys at the depot will not rejoice until to-morrow. "It was a cold day yesterday."

The T. & P. received and shipped over 6,000 bales of cotton during the month of January. Quite a good showing for Fort Worth over one road.

After the grand banquet to be given by the cattlemen on March 6th, the balance of the good things will be given to the poor of our city.

A force of hands was busy yesterday moving the engine of the city mills, to the Novelty mills. It is said the county will buy the old mill site for the new jail.

Messrs. Pruitt & Bro. are now in their new rooms in the southwest corner of the new stone building below the post office. Rooms on the second floor. Entrance on Fifth street.

A Fanson & Son of Toronto, Ontario have two fine stallions of the Clydesdale breed, which they will sell in this city. One of the animals, only 3 years old, weighs 1700 pounds.

Fat Patillo appeared before Justice John F. Quinn yesterday morning, and waving a preliminary, was held in a bond of $700 on a charge of aggravated assault on the person of an old man named Stanley.

In three weeks, nineteen convictions for felons have been obtained. Sixteen persons have been taken to Huntsville and three have appealed. There have been ten cases dismissed, one acquitted, and one hung jury.

George Oglesby, the transporter of convicts called at the jail Saturday night, but found all the late convicts had appealed. He had in custody a young man arrested at Waco wanted in Illinois for horse stealing. This prisoner Oglesby took to Dallas for identification.

Dr. O. B. Hewitt has just arrived from Illinois, Kaukaee county with a car load of fine Hereford cattle. They can be seen at the O. K. wagon yard. We are pleased to know that the Doctor takes an interest in Fort Worth and has expressed a desire to add to the commercial prosperity of our rapidly growing city. Welcome, we say.

A warrant has not been sworn out for Charles J. Powell. A complaint has been made against Charlie Powers for putting Mayor Smith's name to a board order amounting to about $5. The $25 part was a check forged by Powers and paid by the Farmers National bank, but the grand jury refused to indict. Mr. Boaz going before them and requesting their leniency. When arrested Powers will have a preliminary.

PERSONAL.

H. R. Silet of Denver, is in the city.

R. H. Thomason of Waco, is in the city.

M. V. Johnson of Abilene is in the city.

T. L. Taylor, from the blue grass region is in the city.
